Trip

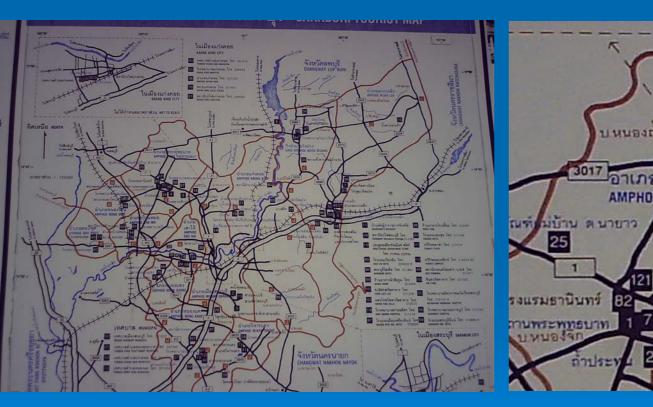

to

Wat Phra Phutthabat

Wat Phra Phutthabat

Map of Saraburi

Wat Phra Phutthabat

Located in Phra Phutthabat district, Saraburi with a total area of about 2,800 acres.

Built by King Songthem during the Ayutthaya period in 1624.

Three categories of Wat Phra phutthabat

```
: Lord Buddha's Footprint
      Temple hall
             The museum
: The Sanghavat
      Residences of monks
             An auditorium
                   Buddhist School
                          A notary office
                                Kitchen
```

: Main temple area

Lord Buddha's Footprint

Open every day from 8.00 am.- 5.00 pm. Ticket at 30 baht for foreign visitors

The traditional events at the shine

- : Offering of uncooked rice and dry food to Buddhist monks.
 - New Year's Day
- : Paying Homage to the Holy Shine of the Lord Buddha's Footprint.
 - Chinese New Year
- : Floral offerings to Buddhist monks.
 - Commencement of the Buddhist Lent

Floral offering to Buddhist monks

Floral Procession

If you have a chance try to visit "Wat Phra Phutthabat"

Thank you